The Offering Today is for Reaching Souls for the Kingdom . . .

The Carolina Conference is evangelistic because pastors and members know Jesus' return is near. Last year you held more than 125 outreach efforts and at camp meeting you gave $127,000. The result: 881 people joined the church! This year more than 145 evangelistic events are planned and $250,000 is needed for CBT. Your offering today will go towards meeting that need.

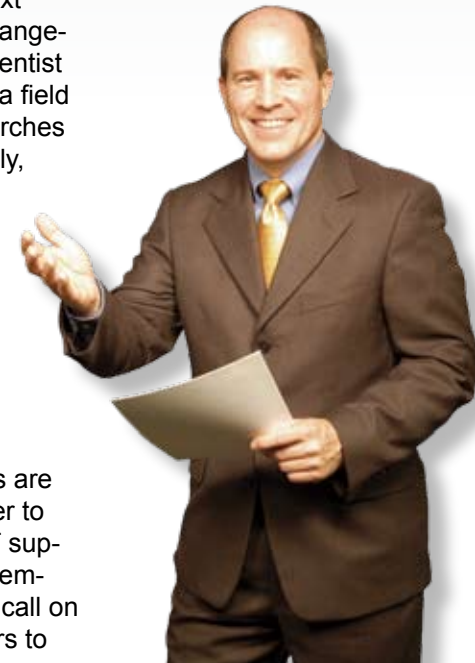

join them in giving generously so even more people will hear the Gospel. Thanks for what you've done, are doing, and will do to hasten the Lord's coming.

Grace and peace,

John A Sweigart
Evangelism Coordinator

As we meet, the next generation of pastor-evangelists from Southern Adventist University is training in a field school involving 10 churches around Columbia. In July, students from Andrews University (AU) will train in Concord, and in September other students from AU will be part of a field school involving 12 churches around Raleigh.

These opportunities are also challenges. In order to honor requests for CBT support, the pastors and members of these churches call on their brothers and sisters to Make your offering envelopes out for Carolina Breakthrough.
